

Jan 2009

Jacobs and Associates is hiring Regulatory Reform and RIA Experts

Jacobs and Associates is looking for experts to join our staff or work as short-term consultants on a range of regulatory reform projects around the world. We offer flexibility in location and work environment, opportunities to work within innovative and challenging projects in both OECD and transition countries, and competitive pay with incentives. Your location and nationality are not important.

Jacobs and Associates (www.regulatoryreform.com) is a multidisciplinary consulting firm specializing in regulatory reform. We are based in Washington DC and Dublin (Jacobs and Associates Europe). We have advised national and regional governments on regulatory reform in over 85 emerging, less developed, and developed economies in Africa, Asia, the Americas, and Europe. Our Directors have been international leaders in promoting regulatory reform through our work in international institutions (such as head of the OECD's regulatory reform program), and at the highest levels of government in the Americas, Europe, and Asia. Our clients include national governments and international institutions such as the World Bank, EBRD, the European Commission, APEC, the Asian Development Bank, the Inter American Development Bank, FIAS, International Labour Organization (ILO) and UNDP, as well as bilateral aid agencies such as the European Aid, USAID, DFID, and Germany Aid (GTZ). Please see our website for more information about the firms.

Jacobs and Associates is working in areas such as:

- “Better regulation” reforms and strategies
- Building institutions and capacities for better regulation
- Regulatory Impact Analysis (RIA) Programs and RIA Training
- Standard Cost Model reforms, administrative simplification, and licensing reforms
- Improving the national regulatory environment for businesses, including SMEs
- Business registry reforms
- eGovernment solutions
- Inspection reforms
- Sectoral and competition regulators
- Stakeholder consultation and building stakeholder capacities
- Administrative procedure laws and due process.

Jacobs and Associates Inc

1300 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Suite 700 Washington, DC 20004 United States
Phone: 1 202 204 3060 Fax: 1 202 789 7349 Website: www.regulatoryreform.com
Offices in Seoul, Korea and Dublin, Ireland. See our website for contact information.

The Jacobs and Associates management team is composed of top-ranked, influential practitioners and researchers.

Scott H. Jacobs in Washington, DC is a leading global expert and author with 25 years of experience in regulatory reform and good business environments.

Cesar Cordova in Paris is an international expert on regulatory reform and good governance issues who has advised governments of more than 50 developed and transition countries.

Michael Griffin in Dublin specializes in regulatory development, particularly in the telecommunications sector, and public sector reform consulting.

Jefferson Hill in Washington, DC worked in regulatory reform for 25 years in the U.S. Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs in the U.S. Office of the President

Jong Seok Kim in Seoul was named in March 2007 as the Chairman of the Korean Economic Research Institute (KERI)

We are looking for people with the following characteristics:

At least 3 and preferably 5 years experience in a field relevant to our work

Professional experience in at least two countries and preferably more

Analytical and research skills in comparative work

Experience in working with government reforms, either as a civil servant or as an external consultant

Good professional references

Good English skills and competent writing skills

Good personal skills in working with a variety of cultures and nationalities

Willingness to travel

If interested, please send your CV to: janda@regulatoryreform.com.

Jacobs and Associates Inc

1300 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Suite 700 Washington, DC 20004 United States
Phone: 1 202 204 3060 Fax: 1 202 789 7349 Website: www.regulatoryreform.com
Offices in Seoul, Korea and Dublin, Ireland. See our website for contact information.